

Bridal Waves

Designer Begitta Stolk of the label Begitta has only taken on the wedding and bridal industry in the last 18 months after only 3 years of running her own high fashion label 'Begitta'. With over a decade of working in the fashion industry and an illustrious past including studying Haute Couture in Paris and Bridal Couture in London's famed Central Saint Martins College of Art. Begitta has made great waves taking the industry by storm with her fashion forward yet whimsical approach to bridal and evening wear and has caught the attention of many with her incredibly sought after designs. Begitta has now been awarded a great honour as Bridal Gown Couture Designer of the Year at the Queensland's Weddings and Events of Australia Awards.

Weddings and Events of Australia 'Awards for Excellence' took place Sunday the 20th July at the stunning Surfers Paradise Marriott Resort and Spa. The wedding industries elite came together from across Queensland to celebrate the industry they all put so much effort into.

Weddings and Events of Australia is focused on recognising, supporting and educating elite brands in the Australian Wedding market. The night was all about recognising those wedding suppliers who go above and beyond to meet their client's requests.

The awards themselves are judged by an elite board of wedding professionals including Victoria Black, the founder of Wildfire Publishing, Australia's Number One in Bridal Media. Wendy Daoud El-Khoury, Founder of Wedded Wonderland and famed Steven Khalil, recognised as one of Australia's leading couture designers.

The stunning red carpet event was hosted by Rachael Bentick and Channel 10's Ron Wilson who presented the awards for the evening.

The label Begitta will feature at Brisbane's prestigious Mercedes-Benz Fashion Festival on August 26th with an incredible new collection that is set to have the crowd moved from Brisbane City Hall into a dreamland of laces, silks, tulle and sparkle!

For more information about the label Begitta please visit:

<http://www.begitta.com>

Or email:

pr@begitta.com

QUEENSLAND WINNER – Weddings and Events of Australia (WEOA)
Bridal Gown Couture Designer of the Year – Begitta

For further information regarding this event, please contact the WEOA team on;
 P: 1300 551 399 | E: info@weoa.com.au | W: www.weoa.com.au